

Curriculum overview English

Key Stage 3

Year	Autumn Term	Spring Term	Summer Term
7	Novel: Coraline Students will read a whole fiction text whilst building on a range of reading and writing skills. Key learning: Reading for inference and deduction Examining an author's style Recreating an author's methods Writing analytical paragraphs in preparation for essay writing Introduction to fiction Students will read the opening of a variety of modern novels. Key learning: Evaluating a text in order to form a personal opinion Reading and comprehending a range of texts Identifying themes Exploring how writers use language to grip the reader	Dastardly Deeds Students will look at some of Shakespeare's most diametrically opposed characters from the villainous Richard III to the heroic Portia from 'The Merchant of Venice', before looking at some reallife heroes and villains. We will stop on the way to explore some of the most memorable characters in poetry. Key learning: • Annotating a range of text types • Exploring the effect of a writer's methods • Examining a text in its context • Using a range of figurative language devices to inform our own writing Creative writing Students will study a range of exciting texts as well as looking at film adaptations to discover how authors develop character and setting in order to create their own piece of descriptive writing based upon a photograph. Key learning: • Identifying and using figurative language techniques • Exploring how sentence structures can be manipulated according to purpose • Building understanding of connotation	Welcome to the Future Thematic Unit Students will look at exerts from a range of dystopian novels whilst learning about the conventions of this literary genre. They will examine a variety non-fiction and fiction extracts relating to the topic. Key learning: Reading with a critical eye Annotating unseen fiction and non-fiction Examining how a writer's methods shape meaning Making connections within and between literary text Examining why a writer structures a text in the way they do Ghost Boys Students will read this current and engaging novel looking at the way Parker Rhodes encourages the reader to consider injustices within the world. Key learning: Skimming and scanning to find information quickly Making connections between the text and the wider world Close reading to look at the connotations of words and the effects of figurative language

8 Novel: Ravensgate

Students will read a whole fiction text in order to build upon a range of reading and writing skills.

Key learning:

- Reading for inference and deduction
- Using a range of persuasive language devices within a piece of writing
- Looking at how figurative language and sentence structures shape meaning
- Emulating a writer's style in order to show an understanding of the ways in which language shapes meaning and engages the reader
- Annotating a passage to look how word choices shape meaning
- Writing PEA paragraphs

Express Yourself

Students will look at a range of non-fiction texts from autobiography to speech writing, before expressing their own point of view in a piece of writing in a genre of their choice.

Key learning:

- Encountering the acronym FEETCRAMPS
- Identifying persuasive writing devices
- Explaining the effect of persuasive writing devices
- Using a range of persuasive techniques within a piece of writing
- Annotating and understanding a range of nonfiction texts
- Identifying a writer's point of view

Conflict Poetry

Students will build upon their existing knowledge of poetic techniques and figurative language in order to write a critical essay comparing two poems on the theme of conflict.

Key learning:

- Recognising and commenting on the impact of figurative language
- Exploring the ways in which structure shapes meaning
- Working as a group to present a poem in performance
- Using connectives to make comparisons
- Experimenting with writing poetry
- Writing a comparative critical essay

The Dark Lady by Akala leading to Flesh and Blood (modern play)

Students will study the Elizabethan context and analyse a range of non-fiction connected to the themes and issues of the novel and its time. This will then lead to students looking at the conventions of horror writing before working collaboratively to write and stage their own alternative ending.

Key learning:

- Analysis of authorial craft
- Analysis of thematically/contextually linked, non-fiction
- Understanding how to use stage directions
- Writing lines of speech effectively
- Exploring how setting is used to create mood
- Working well within a group
- Using dramatic techniques successfully on stage

9 I Must Betray You

Students will study Sepety's novel.

Key learning:

- Responding to texts critically and using textual evidence to support Point, Evidence, Explain construction
- Examining how language, form and structure contribute to meaning
- Relating texts to their contexts
- Examining and evaluating how writers use literary devices to achieve effects
- Exploring quotations in preparation for an examination
- Tracking a key theme throughout a text
- Learning about context and exploring the ways in which this shapes a text

Reading and creating fiction texts

Students will learn how to critically evaluate a previously unseen extract, as well as creating descriptive or narrative writing.

Key learning:

- Descriptive writing style and construction
- Narrative writing style and construction
- Communicating clearly and imaginatively, using form and vocabulary suited to the task and purpose
- Organising writing and using linguistic devices effectively

Shakespeare

Students will study a Shakespeare play.

Key learning:

- Responding to texts critically and using textual evidence to support ideas in PEE (Point, Evidence, Explain) writing
- Explaining how language, form, stagecraft and structure contribute to meaning
- Relating texts to their contexts
- Learning quotations in preparation for an examination

Cultures

Students will look at a range of diverse authors looking at the way other cultures are integrated into our society and considering the need for change and acceptance.

Key learning:

- Looking at how meaning is shaped by language and figurative techniques in poetry
- Exploring how structure can aid a writer's message
- Planning an essay on an unseen poem
- Zooming in on individual words and exploring their connotations
- Zooming out and considering how the setting and context of a piece of writing influence its shape

An Inspector Calls

Students will explore this GCSE text with a view to understanding the plot and key information about characters.

Key learning:

- Recalling plot
- Annotating and analysing key quotations
- Learning key quotations in preparation for the examination
- Tracking characters through the play and evaluating their role and relationships with others

Spoken Language

Students will look at a range of argumentative and persuasive non-fiction texts before writing their own speech which will be performed to the class.

Key learning:

- Looking at how writers use language to present their opinions
- Annotating a range of non-fiction texts
- Revising the acronym FEETCRAMPS
- Planning a well-structured piece of work
- Developing a range of ideas and expressing them persuasively
- Engaging an audience when speaking
- Writing accurately, using a range of sentence structures

Key Stage 4 course outline

GCSE English Language AQA 8700; GCSE English Literature 8702

Year	Autumn Term	Spring Term	Summer Term
10	Macbeth	English Language Paper 1 – reading and writing	SLE
	Poetry – unseen and Love & Relationships	fiction texts	Macbeth and An Inspector Calls
	anthology	Poetry – Love & Relationships anthology	Poetry – unseen and Love & Relationships
	English Language Paper 1 – reading fiction texts	(continued)	anthology (continued)
			English Language Paper 1 Revision
11	English Language Paper 2 – reading and writing	A Christmas Carol	Whole course revision
	non-fiction texts	Whole course revision
	A Christmas Carol		